Report

The one-day workshop on Day to Day Account Maintenance for Women Self Help Group was organized on 20th July 2022 at [Venue Name/Location]. This workshop aimed to equip participants with essential skills in financial management and account maintenance, crucial for the effective functioning of Self Help Groups (SHGs).

Prof. H.K Shivappa, Vice-Principal of SJMC, Chitradurg, delivered a comprehensive keynote address on Day to Day Account Maintenance, highlighting its significance in fostering financial independence among women.

Session on Fundamentals of Account Maintenance: Conducted by Prof. B.M Swamy, this session covered basic principles of bookkeeping, ledger entries, and record keeping specific to SHGs. Interactive Discussions: Smt. Sudha facilitated interactive discussions among participants, focusing on practical challenges and solutions in maintaining SHG accounts.

Dr. R.V Hegadal led practical exercises and case studies, providing participants with hands-on experience in applying accounting principles to SHG scenarios.

The workshop began with a prayer by Kumar Vidya, followed by a welcome speech by Nasina, where she set the tone for the day's discussions.

Sri. Ashok, in his presidential remarks, emphasized the importance of financial literacy and empowerment of women through SHGs.

The one-day workshop on Day to Day Account Maintenance for Women Self Help Group proved to be highly informative and beneficial. Participants gained practical skills and knowledge essential for enhancing the financial management practices within their SHGs.
