Report

The One-Day Faculty Development Programme was held on March 3, 2021, at ICT Hall. It was organized by IQAC to provide faculty members with opportunities for professional development and skill enhancement. The programme aimed to equip participants with essential skills related to proposal writing, documentation creation, life skills, and event management.

Session I: Proposal Writing for Various Opportunities Available

This session focused on the techniques and best practices for writing effective proposals for various opportunities. Dr. Gururaj M.B provided insights into structuring proposals and tailoring them to specific requirements.

Session II: Creating Documentation

Dr. Gururaj M.B shared strategies for creating clear and concise documentation. Participants learned about organizing information, formatting documents, and ensuring clarity and coherence in written materials.

Session III: Life Skills

This session emphasized the importance of life skills for personal and professional development. Dr. Gururaj M.B discussed essential life skills such as communication, time management, and problem-solving.

Session IV: Event Management

Dr. Gururaj M.B provided insights into effective event management techniques. Participants learned about planning, organizing, and executing successful events, including identifying objectives, managing resources, and handling logistics.

The One-Day Faculty Development Programme provided valuable opportunities for faculty members to enhance their professional skills and expertise. The sessions conducted by Dr. Gururaj M.B were informative and engaging, offering practical insights into proposal writing, documentation creation, life skills, and event management. The programme concluded with positive feedback from participants and valuable insights for further development.

Prof. H.K Shivappa commenced the programme by welcoming all participants and setting the tone for the day. Dr. K.C Ramesh concluded the programme with closing remarks, emphasizing the importance of continuous learning and professional development. Dr. R.V Hegadal extended gratitude to all participants, speakers, and organizers for their contributions to the successful conduct of the programme.
