Report on Cultural Harmony Program on 04-09-2021

On September 4, 2021, SJM College of Arts, Science, and Commerce in Chandravalli, Chitradurga, organized a Cultural Harmony Program with the aim of promoting cultural diversity and unity among the students.

Dr. Panchaksharayya delivered an inspiring inaugural address emphasizing the importance of cultural harmony in today's society. He shared his insights on the significance of preserving and celebrating various cultural traditions.

The program showcased a wide array of cultural performances, including traditional dances, music, and drama, representing the rich heritage of India. Students from different backgrounds enthusiastically participated and presented their cultural talents.

The Cultural Harmony Program organized by SJM College of Arts, Science, and Commerce served as a remarkable platform to celebrate and promote cultural diversity. It was an educational and entertaining event that successfully encouraged understanding and respect for various cultures among students, faculty, and guests. The presence of esteemed guests and the active participation of the college community made this event a significant success, reinforcing the college's commitment to nurturing cultural harmony.

Dr. R. V. Hegadal gave informative talks on the importance of cultural understanding and appreciation in the educational context. Prof. H. K. Shivappa, HOD of Commerce, Prof. Lingappa, HOD of English and Prof. G. N. Basavarajappa, HOD of Kannada are presented in the program.
